The allurement of portfolios is a common feature of the state’s politics. Yediyurappa, who had been Chief Minister of Karnataka since December 2018, was under pressure to make key appointments. The tension was evident on January 11 when Governor Vajubhai Vala announced the cabinet rejig.

While Yediyurappa’s visit to the Mahalakshmi Temple at Kapu was being hailed as a sign of the governing party’s strength, his visit to Venkataramana Temple at Chitradurga was seen as an attempt to assuage the concerns of the opposition and the regional parties. The decision to conduct the temple visit came after the cabinet reshuffle, which was announced on January 10, to obtain clearance from the temple board.

India begins vaccine drive in Bhutan, Maldives

Pakistan has been named as an neighbouring country which could be the first to get its global share of the vaccine as India has already advanced the production of vaccines and key partners in the world.

As the World Health Organization (WHO) finalizes its list of 10 countries to receive doses of the COVID-19 vaccine under COVAX, India has been named as the first country in Asia to receive its share of the vaccine.

Announcing the move, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said in a Twitter post, “India is deeply honored to be the first country to get the COVID-19 vaccine under COVAX. This is a momentous step towards ensuring global health security.”

Meanwhile, the Maldives has confirmed that it will receive the vaccine from India, with President Ibrahim Mohamed Solih stating that the Maldives will be the first country to get the vaccine in the region.

The Maldives has been named as one of the countries that will receive the vaccine under the COVAX initiative, which aims to ensure that all countries receive equal access to the vaccines.

India has already announced that it will provide 10 million doses of the vaccine to COVAX, and will provide additional doses to countries in need.

The vaccine is expected to be delivered to the Maldives in the coming weeks, and the Maldives government has expressed its gratitude to India for its support.

The vaccine will be administered to priority groups in the Maldives, including healthcare workers, front-line workers, and people aged over 65.

The Maldives has been praised for its response to the COVID-19 pandemic, and its government has worked tirelessly to control the spread of the virus.

The Maldives has been named as one of the countries that has successfully controlled the spread of the virus, and its government has implemented strict measures to prevent the further spread of the virus.

Thank you for being with us. Stay safe and keep reading.

Sincerely,

The Editors

The Indian Express,

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my appreciation for your publication of the article “The Chinese India in India is in crisis. Absence of meaningful research and current misguided push to disengage China from our view will not serve our goal, answer and respond to their challenge.”

I was particularly impressed by the author’s thorough research and insightful analysis. The article provides a clear and concise summary of the current state of Chinese India research in India, highlighting the need for increased collaboration and recognition of the importance of this relationship.

As a member of the academic community, I strongly support efforts to improve the quality and relevance of research in this area. I believe that a better understanding of the nuances of Chinese India relations will benefit both countries and contribute to greater regional stability.

I would like to commend the author for their dedication to this important topic. I look forward to seeing more articles like this in the future.

Sincerely,

RAHUL GANDHI, who has been taking several measures to promote the textile industry and jobs in his home state of Tamil Nadu, has been in the news recently. In addition to his efforts in the textile sector, Rahul Gandhi has also been active in the area of education and health care.

One of his recent initiatives is the "Made in India" campaign, which aims to boost the country's manufacturing sector and create jobs. The campaign has been launched in collaboration with the Ministry of Commerce and Industry and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII).

Gandhi's campaign has been praised by many, including Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who has praised the initiative for its focus on self-reliance and job creation. The "Made in India" campaign has also been supported by several leading Indian corporates, including Reliance Industries, Tata Motors, andInfosys.

In addition to the "Made in India" campaign, Rahul Gandhi has also been working towards improving the quality of education in the country. He has been pushing for the implementation of the National Education Policy, which aims to provide free and compulsory education for all children up to the age of 14.

Gandhi has also been active in the area of health care, particularly in the rural areas. He has been highlighting the need for better medical facilities and infrastructure in the countryside and has been calling for more investment in the health care sector.

In summary, Rahul Gandhi has been active in several areas of importance, including the textile sector, education, and health care. His efforts are commended by many, and his initiatives have been supported by several leading Indian corporates.

Farm laws in farmers' interest, PM tells church delegation

The Prime Minister, who was speaking on the occasion of the Church Mission Day, said that the government was committed to protecting the interests of farmers.

"The government is committed to protecting the interests of farmers," he said. "We are working towards a better future for farmers."

The Prime Minister also thanked the church delegation for their support and said that the government would continue to work with them to achieve their goals.

The church delegation, who was led by the leader of the Indian Christian Council, said that they were impressed by the Prime Minister's commitment to farmers.

"We are very impressed by the Prime Minister's commitment to farmers," said the church delegation leader. "We will continue to work with the government to achieve our goals."
Big Tech’s power to fire

Of all the humiliation heaped on Donald Trump as he leaves the White House today, the de-platforming by Twitter and Facebook must hurt him the most. But even as many celebrate his comeuppance, concerns have been raised about the enormous power for good that Big Tech wielded in the running of democracies.

In the past, presidents have matched the length of their inaugural speeches with their predecessors. The poet Robert Frost had the responsibility of crafting the inaugural address for President John F. Kennedy. But in 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the traditional ceremonial parade in Washington, D.C., and the inauguration was scaled back significantly. The speechwriter’s role is crucial in setting the tone for the administration and shaping public perception. This year, the Inaugural Address was delivered by Dr. Jill Biden, the first Second Lady to speak on Inauguration Day.

The content of Biden’s inaugural address is likely to be shaped by experts such as former White House speechwriters, historians, and communication specialists. The speech is expected to focus on themes such as unity, healing, and charting a new course for the country. Biden’s team has been working closely with veteran speechwriters to craft a message that resonates with Americans and sets a positive tone for the new administration.

Backstory Behind Mamata’s Nandigram movie: image building, and a message to BJP

Mamata Banerjee’s decision to announce the release of Nandigram, a film based on her life, comes at a critical juncture in her political career. The film, set to release this month, is directed by Anubhav Sinha and produced by Jayantilal Gada’s Bodhitree Media.

Why Nandigram matters

Nandigram, a village in Purulia district, is closely associated with Mamata Banerjee’s political career. It was here, in the year 2009, that she started her political journey, setting up the Trinamool Congress (TMC) party. The village has since become a symbol of her struggle against the Left Front, which she had been fighting against for many years. Nandigram has been the site of many voter mobilization campaigns, and Banerjee, known for her fiery speeches, has used the area as a testing ground for her election strategies.

The Aloha gesture that has been widely circulated in the media is a symbol of Mamata’s connect with the masses. It is a sign of her commitment to the people and her willingness to fight for their rights. The Aloha gesture has been a part of her political narrative and has helped her build a strong bond with the voters. It is a gesture that represents a call to action, a call for unity and progress.

In light of the current political scenario, the release of Nandigram is likely to be seen as a strategic move by Mamata Banerjee. The film is expected to highlight her leadership qualities, her commitment to social justice, and her dedication to the people of West Bengal. It is also likely to be seen as a response to the BJP-led government’s policies, which have been criticized for their impact on the state economy and the lives of the common man.

In conclusion, the release of Nandigram is a significant political event that is likely to shape the future of Mamata Banerjee’s political career. It is a reminder of the power of the Aloha gesture and the importance of image building in the world of politics.
SC achieves benchmarks for some borrowers to move NCLT

Minimum of 100 or 10% allottees to initiate insolvency

Baggy-Green fade
Paine’s poohs on Day Five only made matters worse for Australia

Moving on from the field that the batsman had just walked off on, Paine was only overcome by the emotion of the moment. It was a moment of emotion more than anything else. The crowd was in full voice, and the atmosphere was electric. It was a moment that Paine would remember for the rest of his life.

As the players made their way off the ground, Paine could feel the weight of the moment. He knew that this was a moment that would go down in history. It was a moment that would be remembered for generations to come.

And so, as the players made their way off the ground, Paine stood there, looking out over the crowd, and he knew that he had just achieved something truly special. It was a moment that would be remembered for generations to come.
KOHLI TO RETURN FOR ENG SERIES

England on Friday named Virat Kohli and seven other India stars to their 16-man squad for the upcoming Test and T20 series against England.

India ends its annual goodwill tour of New Zealand with a mixed bag of results. There was a 2-1 Test series win by the Black Caps, the first time India has lost a Test series in New Zealand in 15 years. Kohli returns to the Test side for the first time since the New Zealand tour in 2018 but will play his first Test in almost two years.

India's Test team, which dominated the first Test (c) in Christchurch, suffered a shock defeat in the second Test (b) at Christchurch. India had lost the series before the third Test (d) in Wellington, which is crucial for the country's status in the ICC Test Championship. India, who are third in the standings, need to win the series to keep their dreams alive of overtaking England and New Zealand.

India's Test team includes three debutants: Rishabh Pant, Washington Sundar, and Cheteshwar Pujara. This is India's first Test series in New Zealand since 2018, and their first Test in Christchurch since 1972.

India will arrive in England on June 24 and face the hosts in three Tests at Trent Bridge, Lord's, and Old Trafford from July 8 to 18. England's Test team is currently ranked fourth in the world, while India is ranked fifth.
